Cyprus

Cyprus is the third largest island in the Mediterranean, with an area of 9,251 km2 and a population estimated 854,800 people in 2016. The strategic location of the island has played an important role in establishing Cyprus as a business hub since antiquity and as a very popular tourist destination. Cyprus has been a member state of the EU since 2004 and a member of the Eurozone since 2008. The combination of quality people, business infrastructure and availability of investment opportunities continue to make it an ideal business hub in the region.

In Cyprus you can enjoy a high standard of living, thanks to the sunny weather, the beach and mountains within easy reach and the lowest reported crime rate in the EU. According to the last census some 173,000 foreign nationals live and work in Cyprus, accounting for 22% of the population. Cyprus is therefore a very diverse and cosmopolitan place to live in. Cypriots are by nature friendly and hospitable.

Limassol

Limassol is a popular city located on the beautiful south coast of Cyprus. It is the country's most eccentric city with an endless amount of fun activities, history to immerse yourself with, many cultures to digest & people to meet. History & culture is laden throughout the city, due to its location along an industrial port and trade route. With archaeological sites, including the ruined city of Kourion. Limassol's old town & many museums to take yourself back in time.
